HUDSON LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Rella Bell are the parents of another little son.

Mrs. C. M. Reed was summoned by telegram to Quanah, Tex., on Monday by the death of her mother.

Mrs. T. W. Ballinger has been ill during the past two weeks.

Chas. Cushing and family moved into the Oxford house on Monday.

R. R. Oxford and family left Monday night for Bucklin, Kan., where Mr.
Oxford was last year employed in the wheat harvest.

Holland Mitchell and family are staying in Tucumcari, where Mr. Mitchell is working at the carpenter trade.

Rev. William Hall of Logan, preached here morning and evening, last Sunday and held a baptismal service at the Cow Spring in the afternoon. The candidates for baptism were the Misses Stella Brownlee, Gladys and Edna Oxford, Myrtle Reed and her brother, Roy. This is the direct result of the Bulgin meetings in Tucumcari, a fact illustrative of the wide extent of an influence. Mr. Hall leaves a permanent appointment here, to preach regularly on the second Sunday of each month.

By request, the Children's Day program which had been prepared for last Sunday, was postponed at the morning preaching service until next Sabbath.

in order to accommodate those who wished to attend the baptismal services in the afternoon.

G. W. Bell, who had the misfortune to run a nail into the patella of one of his knees, is improving.

Will Lott arrived here last week from Clarendon, Texas. Mr. Lott expects to try to make final proof in the fall.

Some very substantial improvements have been made at the local creamery station during the last few days. Several men have been employed in the trenches, and water was installed in the separating house on Saturday. The first shipment of cream was made on Wednesday of last week. Shipments occur regularly twice each week. The cream may be delivered at the station at any time, however. Separating hours close promptly at nine every morning. The new institution is being widely patronized by the farmers of the community.

It appears that it ought to be a crime for any farmer owning two hens and a half, to throw skimmed milk out on the ground. If chickens tire of the slabber, they will eat it like grain when enclosed. Many people claim not to know that common curd is one of the best egg-producers in the world, having the same productive qualities as meat.

The mother of T. J. Ivey, who has been here as his guest, returned to her home in Vernon, Tex., the last of the week.

one suggested? There should be a route from Norton to Tucumcari, to gather up the cream, or one to San Jon.

LOGAN ITEMS

Summer showers are refreshing but as yet we have had no heavy rains.
Earlier the heavy rains caused the soil to pack heavily on sprouted seed and this caused a bad stand of some feed stuff and numbers have had to plant over through this section.

Oscar J. Tannyhill was here from his claim on the Antelope where he is living happily and making his own toast and coffee. He says he would be happy to get married this fall but he don't know how this will all turn out.

We miss two of our cutest girls from Logan this week. We are told they are visiting on Gallegos Flat. You want 'em' come back home; his heart is sad and lonely.

Miss Mary L. Quarles has been sick or fever about eight days, but is up again.

B. Clanton came in this week from Paris, Texas, to visit his former friend Dr. J. M. Quarles and attend to some business in our new state. He was well pleased with this part of the country.

Hewitt Payne left with a party to buy cows out further west. Good luck to you old boy, your girl says she won't forget you.

Bear Grass is now one of the chief exports from Logan depot but soon we will see the immense loads of sheep wool coming in for shipment.

DENIAL OF RYAN'S REMARKS ISSUED FROM THE CAMP

Referee Smith Asserts Flynn Has a Very Little or No Superfluous Flesh

East Las Vegas, N. M., June 18.—
"Jim Flynn is not hog fat, as claimed by a disgruntled camp follower. I examined him last Saturday afternoon, and in addition to finding him physically fit and sound in every particular, I doubt if he is carrying around over four pounds of superfluous flesh. He was stripped when I weighed him, and he tipped the scales at 196 pounds. I consider him in excellent condition, and do not see how he can take off more than a couple of pounds unless Manager Curley asks me to saw off an arm or a leg."

So stated Dr. Edwin R. Shaw of East Las Vegas tonight. He has been practicing for thirty years and has been a member of the Santa Fe railway's staff of surgeons almost all that time. Dr.
Shaw is also ex-president of the State Medical society and ex-president of the Santa Fe Medical and Surgical Association.

He examined and measured Jim Flynn and Jack Johnson last Saturday afternoon at the request of Manager Jack Curley and voted the Puebloan the more perfect athlete.

Dr. Shaw praised the physical condition and the physical development of both men, the one flaw he found in either being the negro champ's scant chest development and his poor "wind." It is because of those deficiencies that Dr. Shaw doubts if Johnson will be able to go a long route July 4 should the fight generate into a real, sure-enough fight.

Jim Flynn had a hard, gruelling work this afternoon. The weather is ideal again and a crowd of fully 500 persons made the ride out to the Montezuma Springs training camp for a look at the fireman in action. With Abdul the Turk in command giving orders and holding the watch, Flynn worked at top speed for exactly fifty minutes, and though in action every second, was barely puffing when he reached his dressing room for his rubdown.

Flynn put on a new wrinkle, three three-minute rounds of tugging and hauling with Ray Marshall, following his usual routine of work, and wound up with three fast, harsh rounds of Johnson also played a matinee. He too, had a crowd that paid, as it costs 15 cents to enter Lil' Artlin's arena.

He began by punching the bag fifteen minutes. Next he threw the medicine ball around for ten minutes. For a grand windup Johnson boxed five fast rounds with Marty Cutler and six more rounds with Calvin Respass. As the chump was idle yesterday, he hazarded a guess in the forenoon today that he would weigh 225 pounds when he completed his afternoon work. He was wrong by two and one-half pounds, the scales tipped the beam at 220½ when he got on them following his matinee.

"Ryan's statement that Jim Flynn is hog fat couldn't be farther from the facts," stated Ed. Smith, the Chicago sporting writer and referee of the July 4 encounter, who saw the Puebloan at his work this afternoon. "Flynn could be in a pinch, go into the ring today and make a great showing with any of them."

"But a matter of fact, Ryan several times admitted this to me despite the fact that all along he had been saying harsh things about Flynn. That was because Flynn would not pay much attention to him and wanted to do things his own way."

Claude Johnston, the Kansas City sporting editor, also watched the Flynn workout. Asked for an opinion of the fireman, he said:

"Flynn may not whip Johnson July 4, but he certainly has reached the same ## the fool-ish farm-er

Once upon a time there was a fool-ish farm-er who had a hen. "Now," thought he, "if I can buy a dozen eggs and have the hen set on them, I shall soon have a dozen chick-ens. These in turn, will lay more eggs, which will become chick-ens, and bye and bye I shall have a poul-try farm. And they tell me there's money in poultry."

So the farm-er went to a neigh-bor and said, "I want to buy a dozen eggs." The neigh-bor replied, "I have n't any eggs, but they say that car-rots have all the properties of eggs—I'll sell you a bunch of car-rots for al-most nothing."

So the fool-ish farm-er took the car-rots and set the hen on them. The poul-try farm didn't pay expenses that year.
